

Empowered Women Empower Women

A Day of Learning Focused on Leadership Development, Economic Parity and Health & Wellbeing

Presentation:

Gender analysis from A Portrait of Bay Area Jewish Life and Communities Study with Julie Golde and Ilana Rabin, Jewish Community Federation (JCF)

Panel:

Bringing the Portrait Study to life – Analysis of issues of health & well-being, economic parity, and leadership development of women and girls both inside and outside the Jewish community

Lunch Table Conversations with Panelists:

A deeper dive into an expert topic and considerations for strategic philanthropy

Panelists:

Dr. Myra Strober, Professor (Emerita) at Stanford University's Graduate School of Education, and Professor of Economics at Stanford's Graduate School of Business, discussing gender equity, pay gap and sharing the work 40 years after founding the Stanford's Center for Women on Research (Clayman Institute for Gender Research);

Dr. Denise Davis, Clinical Professor of Medicine at University of California San Francisco, discussing lessons that can be disseminated from patient-doctor communications and unconscious bias in philanthropic grant-making;

Dr. Tobin Belzer, Contributing Fellow at the Center for Religion and Civic Culture, USC, discussing a longitudinal study in Jewish organizational culture and how the findings impact working Jewish women and considerations in gender equity, unconscious bias and engaging the next generation.

Agenda

9:20 am	Arrival to the Sala Webb Education Classroom (ground floor)
9:30 am	Welcome – Amy Berler, Chair
9:35 am	Design of the Day – Danielle Meshorer
9:40 am	Gender Analysis of the Bay Area Portrait Study – Julie Golde, Director of Community Impact, JCF and Ilana Rabin, Centennial Campaign Manager, JCF
10:15 am	Panel: Dr. Myra Strober, Dr. Denise Davis & Dr. Tobin Belzer
11:30 am	Break
11:45 am	Buffet Lunch: Lee Davidson of Made2Gather Interactive
12:00 pm	Conversations with Panelists Over Lunch
1:00 pm	Group Reporting Out + Next Steps
1:30 pm	Conclude + Optional Gallery Tour with Lori Starr