Empowered Women Empower Women

A Day of Learning Focused on Women and Girls
Health & Well-Being, Economic Security, Leadership Development

The Contemporary Jewish Museum
December 7, 2017, 9:30 am--1:30 pm

Design of the Day

Panel:
National issues of health & well-being, economic security, and leadership development of women and girls in the broadest context

Break-out Session:
A deeper dive into either an expert topic or the intersection of the topic with philanthropic considerations

Lunch + Facilitated Table Conversation:
Extrapolate learnings from the day and apply them to our Bay Area Jewish or Israeli context for grantmaking to women and girls

Speakers
Emma Mayerson, Executive Director of Alliance for Girls, discussing leadership development and her experience leading the largest regional alliance of girl-serving organizations reaching more than 300,000 girls in the Bay Area;

Lori Nishiura Mackenzie, Executive Director of the Clayman Institute for Gender Research, discussing economic security in terms of pay gap and gender parity issues;

Katie Albright, Executive Director of Safe & Sound, discusses child abuse as a root cause to many of society’s ailments across physical and mental health, and economic security.

Agenda

9:30 am
Arrival to the Sala Webb Education Classroom (ground floor)

10:00 am–11:05 am
Panel with Lori Nishiura Mackenzie, Emma Mayerson, and Katie Albright

11:05 am–11:10 am
Break

11:10 am–12:00 pm
Break-out Sessions

12:00 pm–12:15 pm
Break

12:15 pm–1:00 pm
Lunch + Facilitated Table Conversations

1:00 pm–1:30 pm
Group Reporting Out + Next Steps + Close